

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

For further information visit
<http://insight.jpl.nasa.gov>

InSight Key Dates

Launch — March 2016

Landing — September 2016

Surface operations — 720 days / 700 sols

First science return — October 2016

Instrument deployment — 60 sols (including 20 sols margin)

Data volume — More than 30 GB over one Martian year (processed seismic data posted to the Web within 2 weeks of acquisition, no proprietary period)

End of Primary Mission — September 2018

Jet Propulsion Laboratory
California Institute of Technology
Pasadena, California

www.nasa.gov